Coleman + Coleman Duo

are harmonious rule-breakers by nature. The fonts were designed together to be interchangeable, extending the range of the two families, while helping designers keep their text fresh and spontaneous.

My goal

in creating Coleman was to design the first of two perfectly matched font families.

Coleman's forms are rounded, while Coleman Duo is more squared. A mix of the two reveals a sisterly/brotherly harmony. Each of them stand proud with their own personality, yet they also come together as a strong whole.

The regular and light weights nearly begged to be complimented by an unruly sibling, so Coleman Funka weight was born.

Coleman Ornaments fit interchangeably with both families.

Coleman

has been carefully balanced, off-kiltered, and hand-kerned.

Ideal for headlines, titles, phrases, and pull-quotes, Coleman is a versatile display font family, suitable for editorial, book design, posters, packaging, graphic novels, collateral, and personal brands.

Coleman has been called ‘vintage’ and ‘retro’, yet the all original design was inspired by the sounds of 1950’s jazz, so in that sense, yes, it could be vintage. Coleman’s playful forms are also appealing to children, and nearly design that embraces fun and spontaneity.
